This Usage Policy is part of our Terms of Service. It applies to everyone who uses our Services.

1. Who We Are

Legesher is a software localization company working to build the bridge between the languages of the world and technology of the digital future.

2. What You May Not Do

You may not:

- break the law or anyone's rights, or send code you have no right to send
- test, overload or bypass the Services' limits or security, including by opening extra accounts
- spread malware, spam or phishing, or pretend to be someone else
- suggest that Legesher endorses or partners with you when it does not
- sell or share access to the Services or your keys without our written agreement
- run bulk queries beyond ordinary use on real code

3. Reporting Misuse

Report security issues and misuse privately to support@legesher.com.
